To insure you get our group rates, be sure to mention you are booking with the Black Widow Reunion!

We will not have a scheduled banquet because of the legal contractual and monetary issues we would have to wade thru but we WILL HAVE dinners and meals and side trips and remembrances of our lost brothers. Please bring any photos of yourselves and others and stories to share. This should be fun for all and a much needed gathering for us share ourselves with those we love to spend time with. I really hope you all can make it. Ain't none of us getting any younger. God Bless our Black Widow family and God Bless America! Hope to see you there!
